

Latin

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 8	Pompeii – 1st century AD. Daily Life – houses and dinner parties. Present tense verbs (3rd person). Nominative and accusative singular nouns.	The forum at Pompeii. Town life and business. Noun declensions. Nominative and accusative endings for 3 declensions. Present tense verbs (1st and 2nd person).	The theatre – actors and performances. Slaves. Nominative plural nouns. Present tense verbs (3rd person plural).	Slaves and freedmen. Roman beliefs about life after death. Imperfect and perfect tense verbs (3rd person singular and plural).	The Baths. Roman Schools. Accusative plural noun endings. The dative case – singular and plural endings. Latin verbs which are followed by a dative noun.	The eruption of Vesuvius; the destruction of Pompeii. Complete imperfect and perfect tense – endings in all 6 persons of the verb. The verb ‘esse’.
Year 9	Key terms: Nominative and Accusative. Noun endings, singular and plural. Adjectives, nominative and accusative. The Olympian gods. Key terms: Gender Adjectives Prepositions.	Ablative nouns. Conjunctions, infinitives and principal parts of verbs. Irregular verbs: sum, eo, possum. Adverbs. Roman Gods The complete imperfect tense.	Favour and Punishment. Genitive and dative nouns. Festivals, games and shows. The complete present tense and present participles.	Possessive adjectives. Imperatives/direct commands inc noli and nolite. Numbers. The complete future tense. Prophecy. Pronouns: is, ea, id/hic and ille/qui, quae, quod and quis, quis, quid.	Pronouns: ego, nos, tu, vos and se. Superlative and comparative adjectives. Superlative and comparative adverbs. The complete pluperfect tense. Oratory and Cicero.	Present participle. Passive verbs including the perfect passive participle, perfect passive and pluperfect passive. Deponent verbs. Perfect active participles. The army and Julius Caesar. Imperfect passive.

	The complete perfect tense. Roman Heroes			Time phrases/expressions of time. The history of Rome – Kings and the Republic.		Egypt and Cleopatra.
--	--	--	--	---	--	-----------------------------